Leadership Trainings:

As today's children are tomorrow's citizens, honing leadership qualities in them and showing them the upright and moral way of leading their lives goes a long way in their being able to handle the challenges which an ever-developing society of ours throws at them.

Hence periodical Training Sessions and Conferences are conducted by the Trust for the benefit of Youth, Men & Women

- ⇒ To become aware of their priorities.
- ⇒ To discuss their needs, concerns and problems.
- ⇒ To build up relationships.
- ⇒ To tune in to others and listen with empathy to understand their point of view.
- ⇒ To overcome fears that block them from doing what they want to do.
- ⇒ To resolve conflicts with friends, family and others instead of arguing and fighting.
- ⇒ To design an action plan to achieve their goals.

Topics Taught

- ⇒ Visionary Leader
- ⇒ Goal Setting
- ⇒ Obstacles
- ⇒ Family Priority
- ⇒ Integrity
- ⇒ Time Management

Visionary Leader

A person that makes a vision into a reality by setting up goals, outlining a strategic plan to achieve the goals, equipping and empowering the members to take necessary steps in the organization at team and individual levels. Visionary leaders can often envisage, in general terms, the various ways in which the organization might respond to those developments, and thereby have a sense of vision that can position the organization to meet those challenges.

Goal Setting

The process involves the development of an action plan designed to motivate and guide a person or a group toward a particular goal. Goal setting can be guided by goal-setting criteria (or rules) such as SMART criteria. SMART is a tool that can be used to achieve goals and help in making the goals Specific, Measurable, Achievable, Relevant and Time-bound.

Obstacles

Training people to overcome obstacles in their Organization / work environment; help them to have a positive attitude towards daily challenges to work through in an orderly manner; to understand the level of obstacles at different stages of life; categorizing challenges and prioritizing their work for better decision making.

Family Priority

Family being the first priority, counseling sessions to take active part in the upbringing of children and make right choices and involving family members when it comes to facing challenges in order to attain peaceful and healthy environment at home. To spend quality time with family members to balance priorities between home and professional life.

Integrity

Integrity, or having strong ethical and moral principles, is an essential characteristic that one needs to value. Integrity is the foundation to be successful both in professional and personal life. Integrity makes persons trustworthy so that they can depend on one another and treat each other with respect. Integrity helps to become more productive and motivated at work to follow moral and ethical principles in all aspects of life.

Time Management

It's a process of planning and analyzing how much time is spent productively and effectively on a specific task to be completed in a shorter period, lowering stress levels and leading to success. It helps in planning and exercising conscious control of time spent on specific activities, especially to increase effectiveness, efficiency and productivity.
